Parking and Building Information

Alumni House is located south of UVM's central green. Our meeting is in the Jack and Shirley Silvery Pavilion. It is ~1 mile from Mann Hall.

Accessible parking can be found anywhere on campus. If you have a handicap parking permit you can park in any spot. The closest labeled accessible parking spots are: Alumni House and Grasse Mount.

UVM employees with parking passes can choose from several nearby UVM lots. If you do not have a parking pass you need to park in a visitor spot.

Non-UVM employees who need guest parking passes must contact Jesse. These should be printed and displayed on your dashboard.

Travel from Mann Hall to Alumni House

Google maps recommends this walking 20 minute route from the accessible entrance at Mann Hall to the Alumni House Silver Pavilion.

You can also use the UVM campus bus \(CATS Bus\). Green route will take you from Mann to Main Street and Prospect Street 2 blocks from Alumni House.

Finding the Silver Pavillion at Alumni House

- Alumni House is both a historical building and a modern meeting space. We are in the modern space called the Jack and Shirley Silver Pavilion.

- The picture below shows the pavilion.
- The accessible ramp and main entrance are on the left side (South side) of the building facing the street.
- After you enter the lobby, the pavilion is to your right.

Accessible restrooms can be found past the lobby to the right.
